MY GRANDFATHER

opened the door to

1911

and for the first few years didn't even know he had the door.

MY FATHER

kept smiling into belated life because when you popped the question, you're fished.

From the time I was five,

almost every day after school, I worked in the store

with my father. A boy's dream became a life.

My wife the poet, though could only see F A M I L Y baguette banded upon my head. But I lived it then and I love it now. Part of our TRADITION
is the love of who my father and grandfather were.
Amazing, not mine and I share the same passion for fine CRAFT - we put our own diamonds into CHANNELS.
